

The flamberge

The Bimonthly Newsletter of the Barony of the flame : No. 3. September . 2001

Greetings from Their Excellencies Eric and Camilla

Another Pennsic has come & gone, & Erick & I hope all those who attended had a great time. The Barony was well represented in several diverse areas. We donated a box full of small toys for Their Majesties to distribute to the children of the Midrealm. Axel Fairhair was elevated to knighthood. I taught a near record number of new tatters. Saescha Erde of Ring Tribe won the Siege Cookery Competition hosted by Maison Rive Historic Clothing. Each contestant received some specific ingredients & a theme (the spirit of Jerusalem, for example). The contest lasted several days, & Seche emerged the proud winner of a set of copper pans. Erick & I saw his & Ring Tribe's skills in action when we visited their camp.

Please try to attend the September meeting. We have a lot of demos coming up soon, dates & times will be reviewed then.

-Erick & Camilla

Report of the Seneschal

Greetings, Barony of the Flame:

I have enjoyed hearing all the stories and events from War!! We missed being there this year so much. Hopefully next year we will be able to return. Your Seneschal is still VERY pregnant. I am not sure how much longer I can go, I am not sure this baby will ever come.

We have a lot of business to cover at the next Baronial Meeting, so please make plans to attend. I will be there, if everything comes out okay, so please if you can, try to be there so we can get some work accomplished. We have several upcoming Demos: one at the end of September, 14th of October, Halloween fest at the Zoo, Bon Aire, and the Fun Farm. We need people there to discuss what we will do. Please remember that the Baronial meetings are not just for officers, we will have those in the near future, Baronial meetings are for the populace, so please come and help make decisions. When you are not there to represent your opinions important ideas and comments may be overlooked. We need everyone's input. (Continued on p.III.)

There are several congratulations I would like to send out this month – first to Sir Axel. We are very proud of you!!!! (FINALLY) Second, to Maria and Steve Clements, the wedding was beautiful, we are happy for you guys!!! Finally, to Isadora von Drachenstein (Nancy DeRosa), she has new job with daytime hours, way to go Nancy!!!

Hope to see you all at the Baronial Meeting on September 17th – 4:00 PM at the Church on Southern Parkway.

In service to the Barony,
Lady Ellowyn Kittel, Baronial Seneschal

from the Chronicler:

I decided to take a break from writing articles myself this month. I'm very happy to announce the advancement of our own Axel Fairhair to the ranks of the Chivalry of the Society. Congratulations, Sir Axel! I would be happy to announce in these pages, or any awards and alike received by members of the Barony; this, too is part of our history, and should be recorded in the Flamberge. I continue to encourage the officers of the barony to submit reports, each month. I am pleased to see our participation growing in this. October is coming, and the end of harvest (Samhain for us who are a Celtic ancestry!). As the nights grow longer, darker, and colder, I encourage you to take pen in hand and two share with us some portion of our common Dream as you see it.

(No further Officer's Letters this month).

Scribing and Calligraphy:

Tuesday Nights , Second floor classroom 202 at the USAF ROTC Flightline Gym on the campus of the University of Louisville, Louisville KY, Contact: Mistress Bianca, Minister of Arts & Sciences.

Stuff and Nonsense:

Monday nights, Held at the residence of Sör Ustad Hussan. Please contact Sör Ustad (ustad@msn.com) for directions or if you have any questions.

ADD YOUR ACTIVITY HERE!

The flamberge is always looking for articles, photos, poems, and the odd paragraph of lyrical prose, nuggets of historical information, quizzes, new ideas, and the like. Submit your work and see it in print!
